

MERCY WEEK EVENTS – September 19 – 24, 2011

The Mount Aloysius College community begins its annual Mercy Week celebrations with the inauguration of the thirteenth president of Mount Aloysius College, Thomas P. Foley.

- ❖ Some two hundred visitors to the campus will participate in a variety of happenings: two panel discussions: “The Role of the University in the Social Fabric” and “The Role of the University in Civil Discourse”; an inaugural and installation ceremony; a service project dedicated to the needs of our brothers and sisters in Haiti.
- ❖ Display of “Mount Places—Mount People” and availability of three historical walking tours (Main Building, Grounds and Buildings, Stained Glass Windows) will be available throughout the week.
- ❖ Tea and scones will be available to the campus community in four venues on Tuesday, September 20: the main entrance of the Main Building (8:00 a.m.), Academic and Pierce Hall (10:00 a.m.), Library Coffee Area (2:00 p.m.).
- ❖ The campus community will be invited to decorate candles for a Peace Walk on Wednesday, September 21. Materials will be available in Cosgrave Lobby from 11:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. At 9:00 p.m. all participants should gather with their candles outside the library for the peace walk.
- ❖ Five students who have participated in gatherings organized by the Sisters of Mercy will share their experiences of a visit to the United Nations in New York and a visit to the Mercy Internationale Centre in Dublin. The presentation will be held in Alumni Hall at 3:30 p.m. on Thursday, September 22.
- ❖ Saturday, September 24, is the feast of Our Lady of Mercy – greet any Sister of Mercy you might see with a smile and a blessing!
